Partner with Taylor & Francis Group to publish your Journal

The Taylor & Francis Group is a leading publisher of academic journals across the disciplines of Science, Technology, the Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences. With over 200 years of experience in publishing journals, Taylor & Francis now produces over 2,200 journals, many in close collaboration with scholarly societies and universities. Our publishing team is truly international. With a network of 20 global offices – including Philadelphia, Oxford, Melbourne, Beijing, New Delhi, Stockholm, Johannesburg and Singapore – we can provide local support around the globe.

The Taylor & Francis imprint publishes established and heritage Science, Technology and Engineering journals; the Routledge imprint is renowned within Humanities and Social Sciences, the Arts, and Behavioural Sciences. Both imprints also publish ground-breaking titles in new and emerging areas of research. All of our journal content is hosted on Taylor & Francis Online, our content platform.

We are committed to disseminating and showcasing strong and innovative Indian research in the global arena through print and online platforms while maintaining a regional identity. Building on a tradition of scholarly work in this region our India office is dedicated to providing local support for editors, authors, publishing partners and learned societies in South Asia while providing the benefits of working with an international publishing company.

Taylor & Francis is experienced in working effectively with learned Societies… they are understanding and responsive to the needs of these types of organisations

Helen Perkins, DIRECTOR, SOCIETY FOR RESEARCH INTO HIGHER EDUCATION (UK)

“One significant strength is the agility and responsiveness of the organization, which I chalk up to the commitment and talent of the personnel involved.”

Prof. Don Ambrose, THE ROEPER INSTITUTE, USA

“I am also an Editor of another Journal published internationally but the experience with T&F is different and unparalleled – highly reasonable financial terms, back up of a formidable publishing apparatus, full freedom to Editors, prompt responses, efficient redress of problems, extremely courteous treatment,... I do not know how many positive features should I list!”

M. C. Deo, EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF JOURNAL OF HYDRAULIC ENGINEERING

“The visibility of our journal outside Japan has substantially improved. This increased accessibility to papers is contributing to a rise in the number of citations the journal is receiving.”

ToyoHiko Yano, JOURNAL OF NUCLEAR SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

“in 2013 the purchase of mobile devices outstripped laptops and desktops for the first time. over 100,000 of our articles are downloaded via mobile devices each month. number of our users paired to their institution at any one time exceeds 3000.
